

Dassel Covenant Church Funeral Policy
when not using the services of a funeral home.

No explanation of our charges would be complete without discussion of payment. This should always be clear to everyone to avoid any misunderstanding.

Cash Advancements: The cash advance items of this statements of goods and services are due before the day of the funeral service. This is in the form of a $200 deposit.

The balance of the bill is due and payable in full in 30 days: After 30 days an unanticipated late fee of 8% (per annum) will be charges for late payment. We understand that sometimes estates can take a while to be settled. However, our charges are based on a 30-day payment schedule. Any expenses to carry an account beyond that should be borne by the account.
